

F. M c C A R D E L L . A R C H I T E C T

18 May 2000

Architects Inquiry
Productivity Commission
LB 2 Collins Street East
MELBOURNE VIC 8003

Review of legislation Regulating the Architectural Profession

In spite of the 200-odd pages of its draft report the Productivity Commission seems to have missed the simple fact that the main purpose of the Architects Acts is to distinguish the qualified from the unqualified, just as similar legislation does with plumbers, painters, electricians, builders, dentists, doctors and lawyers.

(signature)

FREDERICK McCARDELL

C/copy: The Registrar
Architects Board of WA
Upper Plaza Level QV1
250 St George's Terrace
PERTH WA 6000

C/copy: The President
Architects Accreditation Council of Australia
PO Box 236
Civic Square ACT 2608