

COURT RULING: The hangar that collapsed at RAAF Fairbairn on May 7, 2003, injuring 12 workers. The company that controlled the site was cleared yesterday by a Canberra magistrate of a charge that it had breached health and safety regulations.