"Relief or Additional Punishment??"

Dear Ladies & Gentlemen,

It is with great interest we see the above mentioned on the political agenda again after the unfortunate compromise reached a couple of years ago.

Businesses' at that time were made to carry the burden of 3% revenue raising tax to address the budget deficit.

This situation has well and truly been addressed by the present government and it would appear to be opportune to rid industry of this business tax, which is contrary to open market and worlds best practice ideals championed by governments world wide.

Furthermore, your commitment to the Tariff Concession Order & By-Law Systems are imperative if the above mentioned ideals are to be maintained.

In support of abolishing the 3% Revenue Raising Tax and the retention of the Tariff Concession Order & By-Law Systems, listed below are just a few Companies representing a wide range of Industries who have already paid their dues and now look forward to equitable government support in this regard.
